Support Payor Arrears Dispute

Per your request, the Division of Child Support Services (DCSS) has reviewed your child support obligation. According to the child support order signed, child support payments were established at per month effective. The arrears you are disputing are based upon your total child support obligation.

I have enclosed an Arizona payment history which summarizes the obligation and includes all payments credited to the account through the present. As of today's date, our records reflect a current balance of. The balance owed may not reflect interest accrued as allowed under Arizona Revised Statute § 44-1201 Rate of interest for loan or indebtedness; interest on judgments.

You have not specified why you are disputing your arrears balance or the proposed intercept of your income tax refund, lottery offset, credit bureau report, administrative lien, or driver's license suspension. Should you wish to request an administrative review, please provide additional information such as: a new court order which reflects a change in the monthly obligation due; change in physical custody; canceled checks to support payments made but not reflected on your payment history.

Please forward this information to your local child support office. If a response is not received within 30 days from the date of this letter, we will consider this matter resolved. A Request for Administrative Review has been attached for your convenience.
