Notice of Levy Copy to Obligor/Other Person/Entity (Known or believed to have interest of rights to the property)

Pursuant to Arizona Revised Statutes § 25-521, your bank account has been levied for past due support. A levy requires your bank to deduct money from your account, up to the amount of past-due support you owe and send it to the Department of Economic Security (DES), Division of Child Support Services (DCSS). The DCSS took this action because you owe past-due support greater than or equal to twelve months of current support, or have a court ordered judgment, and is authorized to seize your account(s), even if you have joint account(s). You have been previously notified of your child support obligation or past-due support delinquency.

You may avoid the payment of these assets to the DES/DCSS by paying the levied amount of $12,698.00 directly to the DES/DCSS within 15 days after the date of the mailing of the Notice of Levy by the Financial Institution.

If you do not owe past-due support, if you do not owe the amount being held for seizure, or you wish to contest this action, please use the enclosed Administrative Review Request form to request a review of your case. Include documents such as letters, copies of receipts, canceled checks, or other documents to support your claim and return the completed form and documents within 15 days after the date of the mailing of the Notice of Levy, by the Financial Institution to:
