Important Notice About Child Support and Your Recreational License

The Division of Child Support Services (DCSS) has reviewed your case and our records show as of today's date you owe at least $9,835.07 in child support. The amount you owe is equal to or greater than six months of unpaid child support.

If we do not hear from you within 15 days from the date of this notice, your case will be referred to court for license suspension according to Arizona law. You can prevent the DCSS from taking further action on your case by:

1. Sending the DCSS 50% of the amount listed above. You may mail your payment to Arizona Support Payment Clearinghouse, P.O. Box 52107, Phoenix, AZ 85072-2107, or
2. Entering into a payment agreement with the DCSS, or
3. Requesting an administrative review. Your request for administrative review must be made in writing, must be signed by you, and must provide your residential and mailing address. Your request for an administrative review must also provide proof that explains why you do not owe this debt, why you do not owe at least six months of unpaid support, or why your failure to pay was not willful. Willful means that you were able to pay but did not make your child support payments. You may request an administrative review form from the DCSS, or you may send your own written request for an administrative review to the DCSS. You must mail or fax your request along with a copy of this notice to:

DCSS, Administrative Review Unit
PO Box 40408
Mail drop 7715
Phoenix, AZ 85067-0408
Fax No.: (602)771-8398

If you request an administrative review, the DCSS will stop further action to suspend your license until we make a final determination of the administrative review.
