Important Information about Spousal Support Arrears

The Division of Child Support Services (DCSS) has recently completed a review of your case and found that spousal maintenance arrears in your case are no longer enforceable. We cannot collect your spousal arrears because they have not been reduced to a judgment and the statute of limitations has ended under Arizona law (A.R.S. § 25-553). If you have a spousal support judgment, you must forward it to the DCSS within 10 days from the date of this notice. If we do not receive this information from you, the DCSS will stop collecting spousal maintenance on this case. This notice does not affect the collection of child support arrears.

If your case contains multiple orders, and one of the orders is from a state other than Arizona, you may wish to pursue a judgment for arrears under that state's law. Once you have obtained a judgment, you may forward a copy to the DCSS to begin enforcement.

If you have questions about this notice, please contact DCSS Customer Service at (602) 252-4045, outside Maricopa County toll-free at (800) 882-4151, or by e-mail on the DCSS website at www.azdes.gov/dcsc. When you visit the DCSS website you can obtain a variety of helpful information on DCSS services, including your specific case information. You can view your case status, payments, print a payment history, and even e-mail your specific questions to us by using our secure e-mail server.
