Medical Administrative Review Denied

We have received your Request for Administrative Review made pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 25-522 and 46-408, regarding the Division of Child Support Service's (DCSS) recent action taken against you to enforce the medical support provision in your court order. After reviewing the facts of your case, your Request for Administrative Review is denied because it does not qualify for a review under the above statutes. Specifically, your request does not meet any of the requirements listed below:

- 1. Mistake in identity.
- 2. Change in the court order; Support Recipient or Support Payor is not the party ordered to provide the medical insurance.
- 3. Comparable insurance/health coverage is being provided by the ordered party at their own cost, not through their employer.

The DCSS understands your concerns regarding the recent enforcement of the medical support provision from your court order. You may seek a review of your court order with the court that issued the original child support order at any time. Or, if you would like to request that the DCSS review your court order for a possible modification or change, please contact the office listed above immediately to discuss your case. If you fail to contact our office immediately, the DCSS will continue to enforce the medical support provision contained in your court order with your current and all future employers.
