Additional Information Needed

The Division of Child Support Services (DCSS) received your Spousal Waiver of Claim to Tax Intercept on 10/04/2024.

DCSS is unable to process the waiver because it is incomplete. The following items are all required in order to process the waiver:

1. A copy of the first two pages of your tax return (IRS Form 1040).
2. A copy of your marriage license.
3. Both husband and wife must sign.
4. Both signatures must be notarized.

Your incomplete Spousal Waiver of Claim to Tax Intercept and the documents you provided are enclosed. In order to waive your claim to the tax intercept, please resubmit the waiver and include all items listed above.

In coming years, you may wish to file IRS Form 8379, Injured Spouse Allocation, when you file your federal tax return. Filing this form may prevent the offset of the portion of a refund due to the spouse who is not obligated to pay child support.
