SUBJECT: Judgment and County Recorder's Office

Please contact the Policy Unit if you have any questions regarding these or any other changes at DCSS\_POLICYQUESTIONS@azdes.gov or call 602-771-8127

When DCSS receives a court order containing a judgment, the judgment lien must be filed with the county recorder's office where the NCP resides or owns property or assets. When a case manager discovers that a judgment has not been recorded, the judgment must be filed with the corresponding county recorder's office.
