SUBJECT: Intergovernmental Tools

Please contact the Policy Unit if you have any questions regarding these or any other changes at DCSS\_POLICYQUESTIONS@azdes.gov or call 602-771-8127

The Policy Unit is pleased to announce the PORT has combined all of the intergovernmental topics under the heading “Intergovernmental Tools” found in the Appendices folder. It also includes the Intergovernmental Directory and the new “Tribal Directory” which contains the names and direct contact information for the child support colleagues of 14 tribes with tribal IV-D programs. As more tribal programs participate in this exchange, they will be added to the directory.

The Intergovernmental Directory was updated to:

- Add new states and their contact information and
- Revise the contact information for several existing states in the directory.

Both of these directories may also be found in SharePoint within the Intergovernmental Directory folder.

The information in these directories is to be shared only with those states or tribes participating in this exchange and not with the parties in a case.

*DCSS colleagues are urged to view this information directly on The PORT and not create a separate personal file.
