SUBJECT: Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon are Electronic Document Exchange (EDE) states

Please contact the Policy Unit if you have any questions regarding these or any other changes at DCSS.POLICYQUESTIONS@azdes.gov or call 602-771-8127

The purpose of this F.Y.I. is to inform staff that Nevada, North Dakota, and Oregon are the most recent states to join the Electronic Document Exchange.

Having the ability to use Electronic Document Exchange (EDE) allows states to exchange child support documents and Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA) forms securely to improve the efficiency of interstate case processing. Not all states participate in EDE and one great benefit is that participating states are not required to submit original documents (e.g., certified copies of court orders) if they are transmitted through the Electronic Document Exchange.

The Office of Child Support Enforcement asks that states please be patient and not overwhelm them with unsolicited documents and requests while they acclimate to this new process.

DCSS colleagues are urged to view this information directly on The PORT and not create a separate personal file.
