SUBJECT: Second Phase of Nevada's New Child Support Enforcement System

Please contact the Policy Unit if you have any questions regarding these or any other changes at

DCSS_POLICYQUESTIONS@azdes.gov

The Policy Unit would like to inform staff the State of Nevada is continuing its phased transition to a new Child Support Enforcement Program computer system entitled NVKIDS. The second phase will launch on July 5, 2022.

During this transition, CSENetS for cases converted to the new system will be sent with new case number assignments. On July 5, 2022, Nevada will be converting roughly 4,500 additional cases to the new system and will generate CSENetS to any intergovernmental partner associated with those cases. Nevada is informing the DCSS so that we will be prepared. Nevada will continue to communicate impacts through October 2022.

In preparation for the rollout of the next phase, Nevada staff will not have any system access to child support data on July 1, 2022

Policy FYI-366 refers to Nevada's new system phase one launch.
