SUBJECT: Attorney General Offices System is down

Please contact the Policy Unit if you have any questions regarding these or any other changes at DCSS.POLICYQUESTIONS@azdes.gov

This Policy FYI is to inform Staff that we have been alerted that the Attorney General Office's (AGO) system is down, and they are unable to send/receive email or access any databases. Some staff may have ATLAS access. The best way to reach the AGO staff for any urgent issues today (7/13/23) is by phone. We will update when we hear the matter has been resolved.

DCSS colleagues are urged to view this information directly on The PORT and not create a separate personal file.
