Systems and Automation Administration made changes effective Friday August 20, 2004 that when a child is activated or deactivated and the following narratives will appear:

M0015 Child(ren)Added/Activated
M0016 Child(ren) Deactivated

These narratives will now generate every time a child is deactivated or reactivated. Additionally, the narratives will now display the child's name and HLCI in the Person ID field, in order to determine which child was deactivated/reactivated.

Prior to this change, these narratives only generated once, even if multiple children were deactivated/reactivated. Also, they did not include the HLCI, so it was impossible to identify which child had been deactivated/reactivated.
