The Policy Unit is pleased to announce revisions to the closure code 903-NCP IN FOREIGN JURISDICTION. This closure code was amended as part of the implementation process for the Flexibility, Efficiency, and Modernization in Child Support Enforcement Programs Final Rule.

These updates include the following:

- The addition of the term “federal or state treaty” in the procedures in accordance with the language in the federal regulations.
- Users of the NCP in Foreign Jurisdiction closure notice may select from two closure reasons: the first box is selected when the noncustodial parent (NCP) is in a foreign country with whom we have no agreement; the second box is selected when the NCP lives on a reservation and Arizona has no subject matter jurisdiction to work the case.

Updated procedures for the 903 closure code may be found here.

Staff are urged to view this information directly on The PORT and not create a separate personal file.
